Presenting The 2008 Formthotics Blackonwhite Ski Camps

A unique opportunity that offers unprecedented access to ski with and be coached by some of the worlds skiing greats.

For the first time the coaching line up will include skiing with Antoine Deneriaz (France), the current Olympic Downhill Gold Medallist (2006), as well as the regular team of experts – Claudia Riegler, Fiona Stevens and Erika McLeod.

This is a Snowvision Foundation fundraising initiative to continue building The Snowvision Foundation's Capital Fund and provide support to snow sports to help get Black on White on top of the world.

Time: Four days between 9am – 3pm

Cost: Camp cost covers the four days coaching. (Lift passes, food, accommodation, transport etc are not included).

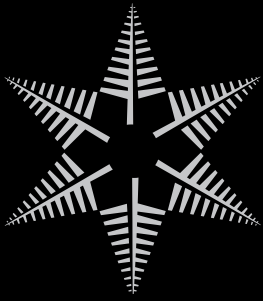

Who: Suited to all levels of recreational skier, male and female. Skiers are divided into groups of similar ability with numbers limited to no more than 6 people per coach. Coaches alternate between the groups over the four days.

What: The focus is on fun technical freeskiing, confidence building and integrating the new technique to get the most out of your skiing, your equipment and take your skiing to a new level.

- Learn to carve • On piste performance • Dynamics • Stance • Off-piste skills and experience
- Moguls • Steeps • Drills and techniques to correct and develop your skiing

RSVP: f.stevens@snowvision.org.nz or phone Fiona Stevens on 021 969 834 or 09 520 1887
